

Anne needed a long time to recover from the terrifying encounter. But then, quite of a sudden, she got a new idea ...

Not even mother could recognize me behind this mask. Now I am Mr Ravenhead from the newspaper ...

2.

Oh, and before I forget: my colleagues from the independent forest television will be here tomorrow morning. I hope you won't mind us showing everyone your beautiful nest. A very good evening to you, Sir. And to you, too, Madam.

Ravenhead from the News of the Forest. If you wouldn't mind, there are a few questions I'd like to put to you.

My, now I'm really lost. They know I've built this cottage illegally.

Hurry! We have to get off here as fast as possible!

I hope I'll meet this Mr Ravenhead again some day!
